

BYLAW NO. 1059
OF STARLAND COUNTY
IN THE PROVINCE OF ALBERTA, CANADA

A Bylaw of Starland County, to amend Bylaw 1026 to add the definition of peace officer, and to permit the peace officer to have flexibility to regulate permitted moves when road conditions warrant restrictions.

The Council of Starland County, in the Province of Alberta, duly assembled enacts as follows:

WHEREAS, the Council of Starland County (the “municipality”) has pursuant to the Motor Transport Act being R.S.A. 1980 C. M-20, as amended, the authority to make Bylaws, not inconsistent therewith, for the regulation of the weight of vehicles on secondary roads or rural roads within the Municipality;

AND WHEREAS the Council of Starland County deems it necessary to amend Bylaw No. 1026 to provide greater authority to the Special Constable appointed by Alberta Justice for Starland County;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by the Council of Starland County as a Bylaw thereof as follows:

1. That part 2 Definitions of Bylaw No. 1026 be amended by adding the following definition:

(c) “peace officer” means a peace officer as defined in the Motor Vehicle Administration Act.

2. That part 5 of Bylaw No. 1026 be amended as follows:

Notwithstanding Section 4 of Bylaw 1026, the Municipality hereby gives approval for the operation of an R.T.A.C. Tridem Axle Public Vehicle in respect of which an overload permit has been issued “by a Designated Officer of Starland County, or peace officer of Starland County” in accordance with the provisions of the Motor Transport Act, for the operation of that vehicle on a highway under the direction, control and management of the Municipality if the operation of that public vehicle otherwise complies with the Motor Transport Act.

Nevertheless, the owner, operator, driver or mover shall comply with all provisions of this Bylaw other than Section 4, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shall obey all prohibitions, limitations, increases or restrictions imposed by the Vehicle Weight Committee, “or by the Designated Officer or peace officer duly appointed by the Council of Starland County.”

First reading on motion of Councillor Avramenko this 26th day of June, 2001.

Second reading on motion of Councillor Wilson this 26th day of June, 2001.
